I. Прочитайте текст, ответьте на вопросы после текста и обведите номер правильного ответа.

Do you know that the word “school” is derived from the Greek word “scole” – leisure, rest. Nowadays it means the place of a main work for pupils. It started in Ancient Greece, where in the I century B.C. they started to build benches for rest, on which people could sit and speak. Then speakers chose these benches, later regular listeners appeared, so benches for leisure and relaxation became a place of discussions. When such meetings of “teachers” and “pupils” become regular, there was a necessity of creation of special buildings for education. Thanks to the traditions, they called these buildings “schools”.
